In celebration for their just-released Lake Effect Kid EP, Fall Out Boy has announced that they'll be opening up an experience space and a pop-up shop before their hometown show at Wrigley Field in Chicago on Sept. 8.

In a collection of posts, the band teased a purple poster with the ghostly styled words "The Mania Experience" and captioned it, "Decided to start the party early by opening up

#TheMANIAExperience before the show starts on Saturday. We teamed up with so many incredible artists to help bring the album to life in a completely different lens, so get your cameras ready."
