Exhibition

Croatia: "Picasso: Masterpieces of the Musee National Picasso in Paris," which runs Saturday through July 7, will mark the last time these 56 paintings and sculptures plus 40 photographs appear outside of Paris. They'll be on view at Zagreb's Klovicevi Dvori Gallery, one of more than 100 museums and galleries in the capital city.

New tours

Idaho: An epicurean white-water rafting trip on the Salmon River is one of several new tours around the globe offered by Whole Journeys, an offshoot of Whole Foods. This seven-night trip for active foodies starts at $2,795 per person, including gourmet organic meals and five days of rafting. www.wholejourneys.com.

Wine country

Uruguay: Just a half hour from Montevideo lie the rolling hills of Canelones, a region largely responsible for the fourth-largest wine production in South America (after Argentina, Chile and Brazil). The signature grape is Tannat, introduced by a Basque immigrant in the late 1800s; the resulting reds pair well with local beef dishes. www.welcomeuruguay.com.

Holiday

Bangladesh: St. Patrick isn't the only historic figure with a March 17 holiday. The birthday of Sheikh Mujibur Rahman, a Bengali nationalist who was president at the time of his assassination in 1975, is now a public holiday. He would have been 93.
