

CroisiEurope Announces Family Club Cruises With Included Second Cabin

June 11, 2017 By Britton Frost – 0 Comments

CroisiEurope is further cementing its reputation as a family-friendly company with the introduction of the Family Club cruises. In addition to CroisiEurope's standard offering of all meals, unlimited beverages and excursions on all programs, this new Family Club product allows children under 16 to cruise for free and includes a second cabin* so that families can stay together on board. Children will also enjoy supervised water games, activities and perform the cruise's closing show for all to enjoy!

CroisiEurope's Cyrano de Bergerac and AmaWaterways AmaDolce in Libourne, France. © 2016
Ralph Grizzle

This new Family Club offering is available on four of CroisiEurope's itineraries:

Croatia and Montenegro: Families on these 8-day cruises receive 30% off for children up to 16 years of age. Family Club departures include July 6, 13, 20, 27 and August 10, 2017.

The Douro valley (Portugal) and Salamanca (Spain): On these 6-day cruises children up to 16 years of age cruise free through Portugal and Spain. Family Club departures include July 27, August 1, 6 and 11, 2017;

Andalusia: Traditions, Gastronomy and Flamenco: Children up to 16 years of age on these unique 8-day cruises cruise free through Andalusia. Family Club departures include July 9 and 16 and August 1, 9 and 17, 2017.

Venice and its Lagoon: Children up to 16 years of age will cruise for free on these 6-day cruises to discover Venice and the Doge's Palace, the Lagoon islands of Burano and Murano, Padua, Ferrara, and Verona. Family Club departures include July 1, 6, 25 and 30 and August 8, 13 and 27, 2017.

*Second cabin next door for a family of four (two parents with two children, five years and older) or child in the same cabin (maximum 1 child); Single supplement waived for single parent traveling with children up to 16 years of age.