

CroisiEurope Lets Children Under 16 Cruise for Free This Summer

Children under the age of 16 can take a river cruise free of charge this summer thanks to CroisiEurope.

This deal comes in conjunction with the cruise company's latest Family Club deal and grants families a second cabin so that they can stay onboard together throughout their stay. The Family Club deal also offers families the standard offering of all meals, unlimited beverages and excursions on all programs.

Children also have the opportunity to participate in supervised water games, activities and perform in the cruise's closing entertainment show.

During the summer 2017 travel season, children under age 16 can travel free on cruises sailing to some of CroisiEurope's most popular destinations including the Douro Valley in Portugal and Salamanca, Spain; Andalusia; and Venice and its lagoon. CroisiEurope cruises sailing to Croatia and Montenegro allow families to save 30 percent on children 16 years of age and younger.

CroisiEurope's trip to Croatia and Montenegro lasts eight days, includes departures on July 6, 13, 20, 27 and August 10, 2017 and has prices starting from $2,523 per person. The six-day cruise to the Douro Valley and Salamanca departs on July 27, August 1, 6 and 11, 2017 and starts from $1,421 per person. Cruise ships venturing to Andalusia for CroisiEurope's Traditions, Gastronomy and Flamenco cruise lasts eight days and includes departures on July 9 and 16 as well as August 1, 9 and 17, 2017 and starts from $1,805. The Venice cruise starts from $1,429, departs on July 1, 6, 25 and 30 as well as August 8, 13 and 27, 2017 and brings travelers to the Doge's Palace as well as Venice's lagoon islands of Burano, Murano, Padua, Ferrara and Verona.
