CroisiEurope, the French-owned river cruise line, is adding new sailings to its Christmas cruise series, including the Black Forest, Paris and the South of France. These itineraries are in addition to existing holiday-season sailings:

A Bountiful Christmas in Alsace and the Black Forest: Christmas cruises through Alsace and the Black Forest will now stop at the Freiburg market, where guests can browse locally-made Black Forest crafts like blown glass, wooden toys, ginger cake and mulled wine. They will then travel on to the Christmas markets of Colmar in Alsace and visiting the eco-museum, which showcases Alsatian Christmas traditions. This four-day cruise departs Strasbourg on Nov. 28 and Dec. 4, with prices starting at $771 per person double.

Christmas in Provence and the Rhone Valley: For those looking to experience the spirit of French Christmas paired with the warmer weather of the South, CroisiEurope is offering a new cruise through Provence and the Rhone Valley this December. Cruises depart Dec. 21 in Lyon and return to Lyon on Dec. 25, with stops in Viviers, Montelimar and Avignon. Prices for this cruise start at $1,409 per person double.

Each year Europe attracts visitors from all over the world to the continent's famed Christmas markets. This year CroisiEurope is featuring itineraries that make stops at markets in Alsace and the Black Forest, Vienna and Bratislava. Its Christmas Markets cruise from Strasbourg, for example, includes stops in Rudesheim, Mainz and Nuremberg, home to the largest and one of the most beautiful markets in all of Europe. Prices from this itinerary start at $885 per person double. For a complete listing of CroisiEurope Christmas market cruises, click on Christmas Market Cruises.

Other cruises that fall over the Christmas holiday include itineraries on the Elbe, the Loire, Bordeaux, Venice and Normandy. The company's Christmas in Normandy itinerary, for example, travels round-trip from Paris with visits to Rouen, Duclair and Honfleur. Prices for CroisiEurope's Christmas cruises start at $651 per person double (Christmas in Rhineland itinerary).
