

CroisiEurope Unveils Holiday Itineraries

October 17, 2017 By Britton Frost – 0 Comments

CroisiEurope is announcing some new additions to their popular Christmas cruises, including the Black Forest, Paris and the South of France.

From last year's holiday cruise aboard CroisiEurope's Mistral.

These itineraries are in addition to existing popular holiday-season itineraries:

A Bountiful Christmas in Alsace and the Black Forest

Christmas cruises through Alsace and the Black Forest will now stop at the lively Freiburg market, where guests can browse locally-made Black Forest crafts like blown glass, colorful wooden toys, ginger cake and mulled wine. They will then travel on to the Christmas markets of Colmar in Alsace and visiting the ecomuseum, which showcases Alsatian Christmas traditions. This four-day cruise departs Strasbourg on November 28 and December 4, with prices starting at $771 per person double.

Christmas in Provence and the Rhone Valley

For those looking to experience the spirit of French Christmas paired with the warmer weather of the South, CroisiEurope will be offering a new cruise through Provence and the Rhone Valley this December. Cruises depart December 21 in Lyon and return to Lyon on December 25, with stops in Viviers, Montelimar and Avignon. Prices for this cruise start at $1,409 per person double.

CroisiEurope's Popular Holiday Season Itineraries

Each year Europe attracts visitors from all over the world to the continent's famed Christmas markets. CroisiEurope offers itineraries that makes stops at markets in Alsace and the Black Forest, Vienna and Bratislava. Their Christmas Markets Cruise from Strasbourg includes stops in Rudesheim, Mainz and Nuremberg, home to the largest and one of the most beautiful markets in all of Europe. Prices from this itinerary start at $885 per person double.
