

RIVER CRUISE

CroisiEurope to debut new ship, itineraries in 2019

By Jeri Clausing | Sep 26, 2018

🖨️ | A+ A-

In 2019, the Belle de l'Adriatique will sail Adriatic cruises with stops in Croatia, Greece, Albania and Montenegro.

CroisiEurope Cruises' 2019 itineraries include sailings on its new Douro River ship as well as a new coastal cruise along the Adriatic.

The Adriatic cruise, on the Belle de l'Adriatique, includes stops in Croatia, Greece, Albania and Montenegro.

Albania excursions includes visits to Apollonia, Albania's largest archaeological site; the ancient ruins of Butrint; and city tours of Albania's capital city, Tirana, and the old town in Gjirokaster, a one of three UNESCO World Heritage Sites in the country.

Greece stops include the island of Corfu and the Montenegro excursions include the ancient city of Bar.

Prices for the eight-day cruise start at $2,518 per person. Cabins on select February and March 2019 departure dates are still available.

Also next year, Amalia Rodrigues joins the company's fleet of more than 50 ships with cruises on Portugal's Douro River.