- Authentic Travel Show Visits a Trifecta of Incredible Destinations -

NEW YORK, Jan. 24, 2018 /PRNewswire/ -- AIM Tell-A-Vision® Group (AIM TV) announced today that its internationally syndicated television series Raw Travel® will premiere four new episodes for the month of February, including three set in Iceland, The Azores and Southern Spain respectively.

The first of four new episodes kicks off on February 3rd & 4th with the debut of "When Travel Goes Wrong" which showcases a rare and behind-the-scenes look at what happens when filming an independent travel show and things go wrong.

On February 10th and 11th, Raw Travel producers debut "Terceira Island in the Azores." This episode is set in the beautiful Terceira Island in the remote Azores Archipelago of the North Atlantic. Raw Travel host, Robert Rose and crew sample the Portuguese-inspired cuisine and visit the island's charming villages and farms on this first of two episodes set in the Azores. The second episode in the series "Adventure to the Azores: Sao Miguel Island" will debut in May.

The weekend of February 17th and 18th, the second of a two-part series set in Iceland, "Reykjavik, Iceland: Urban Exploration" debuts. As a follow-up to "Iceland's Golden Circle" which premiered in November 2017 (and re-airs in May 2018), this episode focuses on the many charms of the capital city of Reykjavik, including a surprising and emerging gastronomy scene, a stop at the tiny but colorful Icelandic Punk Museum set in the confines of a former toilet, whale conservation and more. Both Iceland episodes were filmed in coordination with The Travel Yogi, a U.S. based, yoga adventure travel company.

Finally, the weekend of February 24th and 25th, Raw Travel debuts its first ever river cruise episode with "River Cruise: Southern Spain." During this episode the Raw Travel crew worked with CroisiEurope Cruises to explore the southern Spain cities and surrounding areas of Seville, Cadiz and Jerez. This first of three episodes is set aboard the La Belle de Cadix as the famous ship made its way through Southern Spain and Portugal, with ports of call for passengers that featured wine tours, tapas tastings, flamenco dancing and authentic cultural excursions. The remaining two River Cruise themed episodes will follow in May and October 2018.

Raw Travel is currently in its 5th Season of broadcast syndication (NBC, CBS, ABC, Fox, etc.) in 94% of the U.S. and can also be seen on outlets all over the world including National Geographic People (Asia), Amazon (India), Fox (Europe) as well as several major airlines (Delta, Air Canada, Finnair, etc.).
