

CroisiEurope Offers Three New Mediterranean Sailings This Summer

By  James Shillinglaw, Feb 14, 2018, \(post a comment\) \(0 comments\)

CroisiEurope, one of Europe's largest and oldest river cruise companies, is introducing three Mediterranean ocean cruises on board the newly renovated MS La Belle de l'Adriatique. Passengers can experience three itineraries visiting Greece, Cyprus, Malta, Sicily and Israel.

Each itinerary will make stops in the major coastal cities and historical towns of the Eastern Mediterranean featuring excursions to natural sites filled with rich, cultural heritage. Cruise departures begin November 2018 with prices starting at $2,375 per person. CroisiEurope's three new itineraries are as follows:

The Best of the Mediterranean: This eight-day cruise, traveling round-trip from Catania, visits Pozzallo, Valletta and Syracuse with excursions to the Cyclopean Coast and Gozo, Catania, Regusa and Modica, Valletta, Mdina and Rabat, Syracuse and Ortigia, Noto. This cruise also will include a visit to Mount Etna with lunch and a local wine tasting and a chance to discover some of Malta's archaeological treasures at the Tarxien and Hagar Qim temple complexes and the G7ar Dalam cave. Ships depart from Catania on Nov. 1, 8, 15 and 22, 2018 with prices starting at $2,834 per person."

Mediterranean Colors: This 10-day cruise from Catania to Limassol, with visits to Katakolon, Itea, Piraeus, Santorini and Rhodes, features a passage through the Corinth Canal. Included in the cost of the cruise are excursions to Delphi and Paphos, Catania, the Cyclopean Coast, Olympia, Athens and the Acropolis, Santorini and Rhodes, as well as a visit to Mount Etna. The cruise departs from Catania on Nov. 29, 2018 with prices from $2,959 per person.

Cyprus & The Holy Land: This eight-day itinerary, cruising round-trip from Larnaca, includes full-day excursions to Jerusalem and Bethlehem, Nicosia and Kyrenia, and Galilee, including the Sea of Galilee; and guided tours of Nazareth, Kourion and the Kolossi Castle. On the last full day of the cruise, guests visit Paphos Archaeological Park and the houses of Dionysos, Theseus and Aion, whose splendid mosaics were discovered by chance in 1962, as well as the Tombs of the Kings, a mysterious underground necropolis located amidst an almost deserted landscape. This cruise departs from Larnaca on Dec. 8, 15, 22 and 29, 2018 with prices starting at $2,375 per person.

Each cruise includes all meals served on board and drinks from the bar, excursions listed in the itinerary, travel insurance and port fees. For reservations and more information call CroisiEurope at 800-768-7232 or click on CroisiEurope.