CroisiEurope this spring has launched three new or refurbished river ships, including the MS Van Gogh in Lyon, the MS Elbe Princesse II in Berlin, and the MS Renoir in Paris. The three new ships bring the company's fleet to a total of 55 vessels, reflecting the continued and growing demand for river cruising. Two of this year's inaugurations are for ships that underwent complete redesigns, while the third is a new build. The MS Van Gogh and MS Renoir have been completely redesigned and redecorated to provide ample and comfortable spaces to passengers, meeting the requirements of a Premium Class ship. Both ships will each have 54 cabins for up to 105 passengers each. The MS Van Gogh will cruise from Lyon on the Rhône and Saône Rivers, while the MS Renoir will cruise on the Seine between Paris and Honfleur.

CroisiEurope's newest ship, the MS Elbe Princesse II, is the sister ship to the MS Elbe Princesse and incorporates the same paddlewheel technology that gives the vessels a low draft. This new-build features 45 cabins for a total capacity of 86 passengers, including three single cabins and one handicap accessible cabin. This ship will cruise on the Elbe and Vltava Rivers between Berlin and Prague.

Earlier this year, CroisiEurope launched a re-designed South African water-and-land program onboard the RV African Dream, CroisiEurope's new luxury ship cruising along Lake Kariba. In 2019, CroisiEurope has plans to build another new ship, the MS Amalia Rodrigues, the company's sixth ship, which will sail on the Douro River in Portugal.

In addition, the company also introduced a special fare for solo cruisers: the single supplement fee is waived on all 2019 cruise departures on bookings made before June 30, 2018. Solo travelers can choose from CroisiEurope's extensive portfolio of French canal cruises, European river cruises, out of Europe cruises in Africa or Vietnam and Cambodia, coastal cruises or themed itineraries. Departures on the latest ships, such as the Van Gogh, the Elbe Princesse II, the Renoir or CroisiEurope's African Dream all qualify for this special offer.
