CroisiEurope company continues to enhance and grow its fleet, via the debut of ms Elbe Princess II and the re-entry of ms Renoir and ms Van Gogh into service following the renovations to their cabins and public areas. The cruise line has 55 ships in its fleet.

The 86-guest Elbe Princesse II, sistership to Elbe Princesse, will operate on sailings between Berlin and Prague on Elbe and Vltava rivers.

The 105-guest ms Van Gogh will offer Rhone and Saone river itineraries from Lyon. MS Renoir, which also carries 105 passengers, will offer Seine River cruises between Paris and Honfleur.

CroisiEurope's fleet expansion continues beyond 2018. Next year, the company plans to build ms Amalia Rodrigues, which is set to become the 6th ship in the fleet to operate on itineraries along Portugal's Douro River.
