Travel agents will enjoy eight days cruising with CroisiEurope Cruises onboard the MS Gerard Schmitter as it traverses the Rhine River.

During the voyage, agents will visit metropolises such as Rotterdam in the Netherlands and Cologne and Dusseldorf in Germany, along with smaller coastal towns along the riverfront. The trip begins and ends in Amsterdam, with multiple opportunities for sightseeing. Then, the group will sail to the windmills of Kinderdijk, a village in the Netherlands known for its traditional Dutch culture. Additional highlights in the Rhine Valley include a guided visit to the cathedral in Cologne, the Rheinturm Tower in Dusseldorf, wine tasting in the Rudesheim region of Germany and the ancient German city of Koblenz. All onboard meals and drinks, port charges, travel insurance, taxes and shore excursions are included in the rate.
