CELEBRATE GAY PRIDE IN CAPE TOWN WITH AN 8-DAY SAFARI

BY: JASE PEEPLES

12.22.2011

In celebration of Cape Town's Gay Pride Week taking place February 27-March 4, Extraordinary Journeys Africa is offering an 8-day safari vacation package customized for gay travelers.

The first four nights of this amazing package are spent in Cape Town, where guests will have the chance to see the sensational Gay Parade in experience all the other Gay Pride events the wonderful city offers such as adventure activities shopping, and much more.

action and get their groove on at the elegant and funky Pink Ball, as well as events the wonderful city offers such as adventure activities shopping, and much more.

In addition to Gay Pride events, EJ Africa can arrange for a variety of activities during your stay which include a visit to Robben Island—a 400 year old prison which is now recognized by UNESCO as a World Heritage Site—sea kayaking with African Penguins, a cable car ride up to the top of Table Mountain, or even a private shopping tour with a chauffeur.

While in Cape Town, accommodations will be spent at Kensington Place. The gay owned boutique property is only steps away from one of the city's most lively and trendy areas—Kloof Street. Cape Town's hot spots, beaches, and cultural attractions are a convenient short jaunt away thanks to Kensington Place's central location.

The final three nights of this package kick off with a flight from Cape Town to the Madikwe Game Reserve in the Sabi Sands where guests will be able to explore over 300 square miles of Madikwe, home to some of South Africa's highest concentrations of predators and rare game.

While there, guests will stay at the five star Jamala Madikwe Royal Safari Lodge where the ultimate in personal service and style is assured.

Owned by gay partners Shawn Roe and Rodney Steyn, this luxurious and sexy exclusive lodge consists of only five breathtaking villas. Each one features its very own splash pool—allowing for total privacy. Here, game viewing is at its prime as it is the fourth largest reserve in the country and hosts the second largest population of elephants.

This luxury safari is masterfully created to combine the urban city excitement of Cape Town with the rare wildlife viewing of Madikwe. Pricing starts at $4,200 per person based on double and includes seven nights of accommodation; most meals; game viewing activities; scheduled charter flight to Madikwe and private transfers
