EJ Africa Debuts Royal Safari to Kenya and Seychelles

May 23, 2011 10:50 PM

Extraordinary Journeys (EJ Africa), a specialist in customized luxury African safaris is offering the chance to follow in the footsteps of the Duke and Duchess of Cambridge, Prince William and Catherine Middleton, on this amazing wildlife and beach safari. The Royal Safari starts on the game ranch in Kenya where Prince William proposed and ends on the islands of the Seychelles, the couple's favorite private beach getaway. Pricing starts at $9,780 per person for eight nights and includes all flights within Kenya.

The first three days are spent at the outstanding Sirikoi Game Lodge located on the privately owned 40,000-acre Lewa Downs ranch where Prince William proposed to his bride. The ranch is part of the nonprofit conservancy that is home to 70 species of mammal, one of the most important being the black rhino. The royal couple stayed in a simple cabin high up on the mountain, however, the Sirikoi Safari cottages are located closer to the big game, amidst all of the action. Guests then fly back to Nairobi to spend one night at one of the world's most charming and unique inns with a history dating back to the 1930s. Here, at the elegant Giraffe Manor, rare Rothschild's giraffes live among the guests, vying for their attention everywhere from the breakfast table to the bedroom window.

Beach time begins in the Seychelles at one of the most exclusive destinations in the world, North Island, where William and Kate vacationed. With only 11 villas on the entire island, total pampering, seclusion and a wealth of activity is assured. The untouched white powder beaches and the colorful world of coral and fish are all there waiting to be discovered. The Seychelles archipelago is home to no less than two UNESCO World Heritage Sites and is also a sanctuary for a myriad natural treasures that together have earned it the reputation as the Galapagos of the Indian Ocean. Price per person for eight nights including air within Africa is $9,780 with accommodations at Desroches, or $16,900 per person with accommodations at North Island. Prices include all hotels, lodges, park and entrance fees, transfers and sight-seeing, game drives, most meals and all internal flights.

Run by a mother-daughter team, EJ Africa organizes trips for honeymooners, families and individual travelers to Botswana, Kenya, Malawi, Mozambique, Namibia, South Africa, Tanzania, Uganda and Zambia. Mixing and matching safaris, camps, lodges, and villas, with travel by private planes, 4x4s, hot air balloons, elephant, camel and even horse, EJ Africa has planned over 300 trips to Africa all different.
