Extraordinary Journeys creates Namibia plans

By Felicity Long

Extraordinary Journeys Africa unveiled two luxury programs to Namibia that follow in the footsteps of NBC Today Show host, Matt Lauer, in his most recent feature of "Where in the World is Matt Lauer?"

The six-night Spectacular Namibia features two nights at the Kulala Desert Lodge with private access to the Sossusvlei dunes; Doro Nawas in Damaraland near the ancient rock engravings at Twyfelfontein, a Unesco World Heritage Site; and Anderson's Camp to explore the iconic Etosha National Park.

The six-night Wild Namibia itinerary includes three nights in Damaraland at Desert Rhino Camp and a flight to the luxury Serra Cafema camp on the Kunene River for the final three nights.

Rates start at $3,275 and $6,300 per person, respectively, not including flights to Africa. Visit <http://www.extraordinaryjourneys.net/>.
