$609 R/T Europe and Asia Flights on Finnair

Far-flung and rather obscure destinations such as Joensuu, Oulu, Riga, and Tallinn as well as more prominently known cities like Berlin, Copenhagen, and Moscow are on sale with Finnair. Round-trip airfares start at $609 for travel through April 30, and must be booked by January 17.

The sale's travel restrictions require a minimum five-days stay—a task, I imagine, won't be hard to accomplish in these picturesque European and Asian cities.

EDITOR'S OVERVIEW

Where to Book: We found the best prices for the travel window of this sale by using a flexible date search, which can be accessed through our flight comparison tool to the right. You can find this promotion on the airline's sale page.

Pros: Destinations infrequently found in airfare sales in the U.S.

Cons: Only one departure city--New York City.

Verdict: A great option to see new destinations.
