FASHION SHOW ON AN AIRPORT RUNWAY? YES.

March 2, 2016 Harriet Baskas Events, Fashion Airport, fashion, Finnair, Helsinki Airport, runway fashion shows

A while back, Helsinki Airport and Finnair turned an airport runway into a skatepark.

That worked out so well, they're doing it again:

On May 24, Finnair and Helsinki Airport (HEL) will host Runway 2 – a fashion show featuring work by top designers from around the world presented on an airport runway.

The event is a Match Made in HEL and will feature the work of yet-to-be announced fashion designers from China, Korea, Japan, the UK, Sweden, Denmark and Finland.

Sounds like great fun. Especially if the planes landing and taking off that day use the other runway...
