India For Families

October 24, 2012

Geringer Global Travel is offering an India tour for families. The 14-day journey explores northern India, including Delhi, Agra, Udaipur, Jaipur and Jodhpur. The program is designed to immerse your family in Indian culture with activities such as an intimate cooking demonstration and an evening kite making lesson with a local family. The program includes the Taj Mahal, Agra Fort, Humayun's tomb, Ranthambore National Park and Ghandi's cremation site. Activities include watching a Bollywood show at the Kingdom of Dreams auditorium in Delhi; seeing the Aravali forests, ancient monuments and panthers on an Elephant Safari at Dera Amer, Jaipur; and zipping over the hills overlooking the Mehrangarh Fort, the city of Jodhpur and the surrounding Rajasthani landscape. The price for the India Family Odyssey starts at $3,530 per person double. For a family of four, price per person is $3,158 with the possibility to add on additional guests.
