

Tour Packages and News for September 2011

Tour operator news, packages and promotions

August 22, 2011

On Food Network tours, clients cook, meet chefs and sample local dishes. // © 2011 George Doyle

Around the Globe

North America

Dvorak Expeditions now makes it possible for clients to add stand-up paddleboarding and ziplining to custom-built, multi-sport Colorado itineraries.

South America

Beginning on Jan. 29, 2012, Ecoventura's small expedition vessels will alternate two, seven-night itineraries approved by the Galapagos National Park and Marine Reserve, starting at $3,350 per person.

Europe

Perillo Tours is introducing its off-season, 10-day Vesuvius Tour, which visits Rome, Sorrento, Florence, Naples, Pompeii, Capri and Venice, with prices beginning at $2,890 per person.

Australia

Trafalgar's 15-day Australia and New Zealand Panorama trip visits Queenstown, Melbourne and Sydney as well as the Great Barrier Reef and the Glow Worm Grotto. Bookings made by Sept. 30 receive $600 savings, per couple, on air-inclusive vacations.

India

Geringer Global Travel is debuting a 15-day women's journey through Northern India, priced from $3,865 per person, with a $200 discount if booked by Oct. 15.

More Articles

The Travel Corporation's Brand Leaders

Travel to the South With Insight Vacations

Tour Operator Packages and News for August 2011

More Destinations

Travel Types

Cruise

Family Getaways

River Cruise

Tour Operators