Geringer Gobal Travel is offering a Beauty and Buddhism journey through northern India's rural villages and cities including Delhi, Leh, Alchi, Nubra and Agra.

The 13-day journey can be completely customized and combines cultural immersions in local villages, visits to ancient Buddhist monasteries and palaces, along with rafting and optional camel riding excursions. Prices start at $1,939 per person and is valid through September 30.

Highlights include a hosted dinner with local family in Leh; rafting trip down the Indus River; rickshaw ride at Silver Street in Old Delhi; meeting with the supernatural Oracle of Sabu in the village of Ayu; visits to ancient Monasteries and home to many Buddhist Monks such as Phyang Monastery, Spituk Gompa and Basgo; and a calm ride on the sand dunes at Hunder.
