- The next day, guests will transfer to Varanasi, the religious capital of the Hindu faith, where a group leader will speak on three important topics: "Religion and Women", "Sensuality and Women", and "The Position of Women in a Patriarchal Family".
- During the two night stay at the Gateway Hotel Ganges, guests will experience Aarti, a Hindu religious ritual of worship performed at the Ghats of Ganges, take a boat ride down the River Ganges, visit one of the Widows' Homes in Varanasi, and take a city tour including, Banaras Hindu University and an excursion to Sarnath where Lord Buddha gave his first sermon.
- On the fifth day, guests will head to the Chandela Hotel in Khajuraho, the city of Women are doing it for themselves.

Women are travelling together - joining a women's tour - staying in women's accommodation - they are travelling alone, with other women friends, with lesbian partners. Women are hosting accommodation and creating tours. It's a whole new world of freedom and exploration.
