- The Peninsula New York, in Midtown Manhattan, has a family package that includes 50 percent off an adjoining room, plus other kid-friendly perks. The Camp Peninsula deal starts at $1,350 per night and includes two connecting rooms, a kids' picnic lunch at the pool, free dining for children age 10 and younger, an in-room tent, welcome and turndown amenities for kids, a scavenger hunt, and unlimited movies on demand. Add about $200 tax. By comparison, the starting rate for a junior executive suite is $995, and the connecting superior room is from $695. Use promo code NYFAMILY. Info: peninsula.com/newyork.

- Geringer Global Travel is offering $250 off a 13-day Bhutan trip led by the country's former U.N. ambassador, Lhatu Wangchuk. With the discount, the Oct. 31 trip starts at $5,370 per person double and includes 12 nights' hotel accommodations; a flight from Bumthang to Paro; round-trip air from Bangkok to Paro; all meals, including dinner at the ambassador's home; transfers and ground transportation; entrance fees; Bhutan visa; and taxes. Book by April 15. Info: geringerglobaltravel.com.

- Stay for three nights at a select Astotel property in Paris from March 26 and receive the third night free. The Easter Extend-Your-Weekend deal applies to seven hotels in the ninth arrondissement. For example, the three-night package at the Hotel Astra Opera starts at $318, including taxes, a savings of $135. You must pay in full at the time of booking. Info: en.astotel.com/promo/special-easter-offer.

- Save 20 percent on three voyages with Disney Cruise Line. The deal applies to a three-night Bahamas cruise departing March 25 (valid on veranda cabins with restrictions); a seven-night Western Caribbean cruise on April 24 (applies to ocean-view cabins); and a 12-night Norwegian Fjords and Iceland cruise leaving June 17 (inside staterooms). For example, a couple aboard the Disney Magic cruise sailing from Dover, England, to Copenhagen pays from $4,962 for a guaranteed inside stateroom, including taxes. Info: disneycruise.disney.go.com.

- Victoria Cruises has a two-for-one offer on select 2016 cruises along China's Yangtze River. The deal applies to the Three Gorges Highlights cruise, which sails for four nights from Yichang to Chongqing or for three nights on the reverse itinerary. The price starts at $880 per couple, including port charges. To receive the discount, you must purchase the shore excursion package, which is also two-for-one and costs $90 per couple. The two-for-one promotion also applies to the luxury amenities program, which provides such VIP perks as upper-deck cabins and free WiFi; price is $200 per couple. Sale is valid on superior cabins only. Service charge of $25 per person, in lieu of tips, applies. Book by March 31. Info: victoriacruises.com/about/specials.

- Norwegian Air Shuttle is offering fares from $178 round trip for nonstop service from BWI Marshall to Guadeloupe or Martinique. Taxes are included. Seasonal flights operate through March and from November through January. Lowest fares are mostly sold out in March. Connecting flights on other airlines start at $1,042 to Guadeloupe and $741 to Martinique. Info: norwegian.com/us.

- Apple Vacations has discounted an all-inclusive vacation to Grand Bahia Principe Coba in Mexico's Riviera Maya. The deal starts at $899 per person double for Saturday departures in May and includes round-trip air from BWI Marshall, a junior suite with meals and drinks, airport transfers, and taxes. Priced separately, the trip costs about $250 more per couple. Book by March 17. Info: applevacations.com.
