

See Machu Picchu and other highlights of Peru for $899

The classic Machu Picchu view, from just below the site's ancient guardhouse. (Christopher Reynolds / Los Angeles Times)

By Anne Harnagel · Contact Reporter

AUGUST 16, 2017, 5:30 AM

Enjoy the highlights of Peru on a seven-day small-group tour offered by JourneYou.

The excursion begins with an overnight stay in Lima and a city tour, followed by a flight to Cuzco.

Participants will spend the night in Urubamba and tour the Sacred Valley of the Incas, including a visit to the fortress and town of Ollantaytambo.

At Machu Picchu, reached by train and bus, the itinerary includes a guided tour, lunch at a local restaurant and an opportunity to explore on your own.

On the return, participants will have a free day to spend in Cuzco, with an optional city tour.

Dates: Sept. 16, Oct. 21 and Dec. 9. Availability may be limited.

Price: From $899 per person, double occupancy. Includes accommodations, ground excursions, food and beverages per the itinerary, flights within Peru and the train to Machu Picchu. International airfare not included.

Info: JourneYou, (800) 690-4801

STORY ALSO FEATURED IN THESE OUTLETS

Chicago Tribune

Hartford Courant

Orlando Sentinel

THE MORNING CALL

Daily Press

THE BALTIMORE SUN

SunSentinel