

Restaurants

Dining Agenda: New Restaurants and Food News This November

By Krista Simmons on October 31, 2016

A global list of new and notable places to eat and drink, plus food news from our favorite chefs and restaurants.

Courtesy Food and Wine Classic

New Zealand: Food and Wine Classic

Hawke's Bay celebrates its culinary scene twice annually with a full-on fête that includes more than 80 events over the course of ten days. Seeing as it's summer in the southern hemisphere, some of the region's outstanding talent, including Al Brown, Josh Emett, Ray McVinnie, and Nadia Lim, will be working with the bounty of the season for everything from nose-to-tail cook outs to picnics in olive groves. The festival runs from November 3–14. Tickets for individual events can be purchased on their website. fawc.co.nz.