Learning Journeys powered by Perillo Tours formed a partnership with Ensemble Travel Group to launch a new collection of customized travel experiences designed to combine cultural immersion with hands-on learning.

The program has been developed under the leadership of Carol Dimopoulos, president of Learning Journeys and a university faculty member, who brought her experience putting together educational travel for schools and affinity groups to the task.

The program is designed to cater to family groups, wedding parties, faith-based travelers, affinity clubs, non-profit organizations and conferences as well as academic groups.

Tours will be created around any field of special interest, such as art, music, languages, history or culture. The programs will use interactive classes, guided excursions, guest lectures by scholarly experts and activities with locals to create a learning experience.

Central Europe, Israel, Costa Rica, Vietnam, Cambodia, India and Australia. Sample itineraries include Italian Renaissance: Italian Art and Architecture; A Sicilian Adventure: The History of Sicily; and Spain and France: Language, Art and Culture. Ensemble agents who book a group of 25 before Feb. 15, 2013, will be invited to the Learning Journeys Symposium in November 2013.
