

“best of” lists »

Where to Eat Breakfast: Lake of the Ozarks

December 13, 2011 – 12:00 am | View all 9 comments

Dunno about you, Road Trips Foodies, but there’s something special about a regional breakfast on the road. The Lake of the Ozarks region of Missouri has lots of choices. Highlighted below are just a few area ...

Read the full story »

cooking class

foodie event

foodie tours

restaurant news

wine event

Home » Foodie Tours

Tour “Slow Food” in Italy

Submitted by Susan on December 17, 2011 – 12:05 am

View comments

Recommend

Send

Be the first of your friends to recommend this.

1

tweet

retweet

Considering a trip to Italy to explore its culinary culture? Perillo Tours' ItalyVacations.com has some new Fly & Drive vacation packages that'll let Road Trips Foodies explore any of eight regions in Italy: Campania, Lazio, Piedmont, Puglia, Sicily, Tuscany, Umbria and Veneto.

These independent vacations with specially planned itineraries allow guests to choose their starting dates, tour independently by car and enjoy Italy at their own pace. Each itinerary spans six to eight days and includes four-star accommodations at hotels or historical residences, a private car, meals at typical Osterie d'Italia restaurants and guided tastings of Slow Food wines and Presidia products; prices start at $1,290, based on double occupancy.

Or, add independent activities to any Italian jaunt. Some enogastronomical activities include visits to: Alba, the Slow Food Hearth Market, the old wine cellars at Ugo Chiola for a tasting of local wines; the center of Turin for gourmand tasting, and Grinzane Cavour castle, the headquarters of the first Piedmontese Regional Winery.

For details, go online. The direct-to-consumer website allows independent travelers to design and book a custom vacation to Italy, with air arrangements, hotels, villa rentals, car rentals, train tickets, sightseeing, museum passes, themed vacations, cooking classes, wine tastings, language courses, honeymoons and more.

“Best of” lists »

Where to Eat Breakfast: Lake of the Ozarks

Dunno about you, Road Trips Foodies, but there’s something special about a regional breakfast on the road. The Lake of the Ozarks region of Missouri has lots of choices. Highlighted below are just a few area ...

More articles »

Beer event »

Michigan Bound?

There's a two-fer on the second weekend of January in Traverse City, Michigan (map). The 17th annual Downtown Chili Cookoff takes place from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. January 14, 2012, in the Park Place Dome, ...

More articles »

Cooking Class »

Historic Cooking

Gonna be wandering Kansas this winter? Consider taking a step back in time by participating in one of the cooking workshops offered in January, February and March by the Kansas Historic Society. If your travel plans ...

More articles »

Food History »

The Best Portuguese Cheese