Agents booking a Learning Journeys Family Adventures, powered by Perillo Tours, will receive an 18 percent commission on all reservations made with a deposit by April 30, 2013. Learning Journeys Family Adventures, offers educational and private touring packages worldwide that combine exploration and culture creating an outside-the-box, hands-on experience, the company reports.

While Perillo Tours is best known as the leading tour operator of Italian travel, Learning Journeys Family Adventures extend beyond Italy, offering daily departures for itineraries in Costa Rica, India, Africa, the Arabian Desert and more.

Each location offers travelers unique opportunities to immerse themselves in local culture and cuisine and engage in niche-based travel through themed excursions, the company reports. Each itinerary offers a minimum of three themed experiences as well as Freedom of Choice Experience, which allows the learners to choose a course based upon their specific area of interest.

Learning Journeys Family Adventures offers the following itineraries:
