Feel the love in these spark-kindling locales.

Whether you're organizing a far-flung honeymoon or a closer-to-home minibreak, planning the trip of a lifetime for two can feel overwhelming. Cozy up at an inviting ski lodge in the Swiss Alps or unwind in a thatched-roofed bungalow in the Maldives? Get your heart racing on an African safari or flee to Big Sur for stunning coastal scenery? Choosing the perfect locale can be tricky, but fret not – we're here to help. From secluded sands to rolling vineyards to striking deserts, these expert-approved destinations are bound to make you – and your better half – swoon.

Quebec City, Quebec, Canada

For a taste of Paris – complete with fresh-baked croissants, cobblestone streets and storied 17th-century architecture – skip the trans-Atlantic flight and make your way to Quebec City. Stroll through Old Quebec, a UNESCO World Heritage site filled with can't-miss attractions such as the Notre-Dame Basilica and the Quartier Petit-Champlain, before making your way to the Place-Royal for a warm cup of coffee. Then retire to the stylish Auberge Saint-Antoine, a boutique hotel with rustic yet luxurious suites with wood flooring, Bose stereo systems, soaking tubs and, in some rooms, terraces with sweeping city vistas. Craving more romance? Delight in an upscale meal at the award-winning restaurant at Le Saint-Amour, renowned for its duck fois gras signature dishes.
