It may be cold outside, but this palatial, century-old resort hotel perched high above the St. Lawrence River warms through and through. This is the place to go for a horse-drawn ride through the snow, capped off with a warming cocktail at Les Verrières, its floor-to-ceiling windows looking out at flowery gardens and the river beyond. A fancy feast at the award-winning Le Charlevoix restaurant is always romantic, though if you'd rather take room service in your luxurious suite, where a bubbling Jacuzzi with river views awaits, we don't blame you.

INSIDER TIP

For golfing couples, there's even a links-style golf course, overlooking the St. Lawrence.
