

ST. BARTH'S VILLA LA LUNE

ISLAND LUXURY

St. Barth's Villa La Lune.

Have you booked your fall/winter 2016 travel yet? I want to recommend, La Lune, a fabulous 2-bedroom villa situated in Pointe Milou on the stylish getaway island of St. Barth. With a three-sided vista to the sea and fiery sunsets this stunning villa is surely in high demand. La Lune offers privacy, contemporary-styled sophistication and a wealth of special amenities. The living room is furnished for comfort and conversation and an air-conditioned office area makes the space truly multi-functional. Complemented by a soothing custom color palette the chicly sublime décor is accented with well-curated designer accessories that add punch and panache throughout. Elevated above the main level, a sleek kitchen and adjacent dining area open to a shaded porch and the spacious sunroom is furnished for relaxing and dining.

The views from here are particularly dramatic. A long solar-heated pool is the focal point of the expansive deck and an open cabana and a lower-level gazebo provide additional outdoor living space. Two equally sized air-conditioned master suites boast king beds, smartly appointed en suite baths and glass sliders to decks overlooking the ocean. The doors and windows are all screened, providing the option of enjoying tropical breezes and the sound of the surf. The two, light-filled master suites offer equally striking views of the surrounds, which have to be seen, in person, to be believed. Villa La Lune. Getting here with Tradewind's fleet of new aircraft and scheduled service, luxurious island travel is accessible, dependable, and safer than ever.
