ST. BARTH'S MOST EXTRAVAGANT VILLA FOR RENT

For this holiday season, it's a great time to just take it easy and relax by heading to St. Barth for some quality time in the sun. With milky white beaches and red roofed residences, the sunny Caribbean get-away will allow guests to completely forget about that restless winter climate they left at home. St. Barth Properties, which is a 30-year-old property rental business that offers a variety of luxurious homes, are now renting out the beachfront 'Camp David villa' just when the holiday season is around the corner.

Situated on St. Jean Beach, the beautiful villa stretches across two acres of lovely tropical gardens. The two-story main residence includes a living room, kitchen, as well as a spectacular master suite with his and her bathrooms and a deck that overlooks the backyard pool. Supplementary one and two bedroom pavilions are outfitted with four-poster beds, furnished terraces, and lavish couches. Outdoor amenities feature a tennis court, two swimming pools, pavilions & gazebos, and an air-conditioned gym with a steam room & bathroom. Able to accommodate up to 24 guests, the Camp David villa is available for $402,500 per week during the Christmas and the New Year's seasons. Note: a two-week minimum stay at the villa is mandatory.
