Now is the time to book your Christmas and New Year's vacations if you haven't already. Many of the most popular destinations have filled up, but the Trusted Travel Experts on our WOW List know about last-minute availability and have other ideas for off-the-beaten-path escapes. Browse our list of holiday getaways and get planning asap.

16. Sunshine in St. Barts

Conveniently, Peg Walsh, our Trusted Travel Expert for the picture-perfect Caribbean island of St. Barts, keeps an updated list of villa availability right on her website. So whether you're looking for a one-bedroom at the Colony Club overlooking Gustavia Harbor (so you have perfect views of the New Year's fireworks), a family set-up like Villa Les Embruns a few minutes from Flamands Beach, a surfer's haven like the three-bedroom Villa Wide View near the waves of Toiny, or the money-is-no-object two-acre, 24-guest, private compound of Camp David, you can easily find your swanky beach holiday home.

Read Peg's Insider's Guide to St. Barts Villa Vacations and St. Barts Beach Vacations, and reach out to her for the best possible trip.
