Now is the time to book your Christmas and New Year's vacations if you haven't already. Many of the most popular destinations have filled up, but the Trusted Travel Experts on our WOW List know about last-minute availability and have other ideas for off-the-beaten-path escapes. Browse our list of holiday getaways and get planning asap.

1. Island Getaway in French Polynesia

A few overwater bungalows are still available, says Tahiti travel specialist Kleon Howe, and no matter where you settle in for the festive week, he can score you a table for a romantic dinner at the new location for La Villa Mahana (maximum seven tables per evening with Chef Damien) with almost 360-degree views of the Bora Bora lagoon. Of course he can also arrange private snorkeling trips to see the manta rays and leopard rays off Bora Bora.

Read Kleon's Insider's Guide to Bora Bora, Tahiti, and French Polynesia, and reach out to him for the best possible trip.
