

Two New Villas to Experience in St Barth

 Recommend  Share Be the first of your friends to recommend this.

 Print

 Tweet

By Dana Niland
CJ Contributor

St. Barth Properties is introducing two new properties to their villa portfolio in St Barth: Villa Java and Villa Coquillage.

Villa Java, aimed at beach lovers, is a three-bedroom villa with direct access to the protected waters of Marigot Bay.

The three en-suite bedrooms feature French king beds, his and her closets and TVs equipped with Apple TV.

Villa Java.

The modern, cool-white décor of the living area on the lower-level features a gourmet kitchen with island, a dining area and a living room that can be closed off with sliders.

The villa's outdoor areas feature a covered terrace, a heated extra-long infinity pool on the deck and a private beach area.

Villa Coquillage is named for its proximity to one of St. Barth's most popular spots- Shell Beach.

Villa Coquillage

Just a five minute walk from Gustavia's restaurants, boutiques and bars, this two-bedroom villa is compact and contemporary in design.

The open floor plan, which includes an air-conditioned living room and kitchen, opens to an expansive pool deck furnished for outdoor living.

Two air-conditioned en-suite bedrooms feature sea views at either end of the villa.