

NEWS »

Finnair to bring back Toronto-Helsinki service

Published: 27/01/2012 - Filed under: Home » News »

Print Send Bookmark

Finnair will be re-launching its Toronto-Helsinki service May 24.

Nonstop flights between Toronto Pearson International and Helsinki Airport will run five days a week.

The airline will also be adding a new service between Helsinki and Chongqing, China. Airbus A340 aircraft will operate the service beginning in May.

For more information visit finnair.com

Read more about...

Finnair

Bookmark with:

 Tweet 0 Share 0 Email 0 Share New +1

December 2011/January 2012

2011 Best in Business Travel, Golfing in Bangkok, Meetings in Philadelphia, Eating in Hong Kong and Traveling to Istanbul. Plus a look at the new Boeing 787.

SUBSCRIBE TODAY

In the forum Most read Recent comments

- Best metro in world? — 80 posts
- AA 773 seat layout — 13 posts
- Question re flight BA0015 to Syd — 37 posts
- What are your best/worst airport security experiences? — 52 posts
- Singapore Hotel Recommendations — 26 posts
- View all topics...

