

Finnair to Launch Helsinki – Chongqing, China Service in May

By Eva Leonard on 24 January 2012

Finnair will start direct service from Helsinki to Chongqing, China in May of this year and announced a contest celebrating the Chinese New Year and the new route. The winner will get two round-trip tickets to Chongqing, China's largest city.

With a population of more than 32 million, Chongqing is also China's fastest growing metropolis; its urban population is forecast to double over the next five years. Business travel to Chongqing is rapidly growing among companies in the automotive, chemical, and electronics sectors.

Chongqing's Airport will be able to handle 45 million passengers yearly when its expansion is complete in 2015.

Starting in May, Finnair will fly the new route four times a week, using the Airbus A340 aircraft, with a flight time from Helsinki to Chongqing of eight and a half hours.

VOTE Diesel Car of the Year

Leave a comment!

You must be logged in to post a comment.

Popular Topics

Airbus Airlines American Airlines Android Apple Apple iPad Austria Bavaria BlackBerry BMW Boeing CES China Delta Air Lines Dreamliner Frankfurt Frequent Flyer Programs Germany Germany: Attractions Germany: Hotels Gogo Grüner Veltliner Hilton Hotel Loyalty Programs In-flight Internet iPad iPad app iPhone JFK London Los Angeles Lufthansa Mercedes-Benz Munich New York New York: Getting There oneworld San Francisco Seattle T-Mobile ThinkPad Tumi United Airlines Vienna Wi-Fi

Checking In »

Park Hyatt Tokyo – Hotel Review

Stepping inside the glass-and-granite Shinjuku Park Tower in Tokyo's Shinjuku neighborhood brings a temporary respite to the chaos of the city, as one is whisked to a quiet oasis, the Park Hyatt, a hotel that occupies the top 14 floors of Kenzo Tange's 235 meter-high architectural masterpiece. You start on the ...

More articles »