Fly with Finnair

Finnair and Global Traveler have had a very strong relationship since we launched the first issue in 2004. They have a fantastic business class and outstanding service with fresh Finnish flare.

This summer, Finnair is starting a few interesting summer routes to all over Europe, the latest destination being Dubrovnik (DBV) in Croatia.

In addition, the carrier is adding a four-times weekly service from Helsinki (HEL) to western China, Chongqing (CKG), on May 9. Helsinki has always been a good route for many European destinations to Asia. A review of a map will show you often may have to backtrack in Europe to catch a direct flight to Asia. Among these cities, a Helsinki connection will be more direct and faster.

Finnair is also adding new lounge spaces at Helsinki Airport — this is yet to be confirmed but is on the drawing board for the later part of 2012.

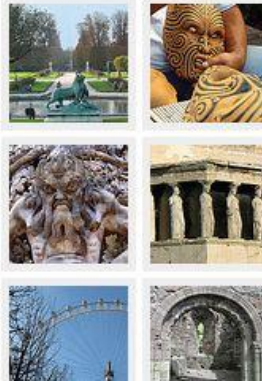

Remember Finnair as an option when you are flying to Northern Europe, Russia, the Commonwealth of Independent States and Baltics. If you are combining a European/Asian trip, this is a perfect option.
