Finnair is wishing everyone Gung Hay Fat Choy by offering you the chance to win two round-trip tickets to Chongqing, China to celebrate Finnair's new route to Chongqing and the Chinese New Year. In May, Finnair will be the first European airline to open a direct route to Chongqing, a burgeoning metropolis of 30 million in inland China. The new route will operate four times a week with Finnair's Airbus A340 aircraft. For passengers traveling from the US, Finnair flies from New York (JFK) to Helsinki six days a week and offers connections to over 50 European cities and to ten destinations in Asia, including Beijing, Hong Kong, and Shanghai.

All you have to do is answer a simple question, and you may win round-trip tickets for two.
