Finnair to Launch Daily Flights to Singapore via Helsinki

May 12, 2011 11:03 PM

Finnair will start daily flights to Singapore via Helsinki on May 30. Finnair flies from New York daily and will offer rates from Chicago to Singapore, in cooperation with oneworld partner American Airlines during the summer traffic season. The service between JFK International Airport and Singapore will start at $1,215. Finnair will be the only airline to offer a daily connection between Singapore and Northern Europe. The route will also offer passengers onward connections from Singapore and Helsinki. For passengers traveling from Asia, connections are available to over 50 European destinations via Helsinki. For more information, visit www.finnair.com.
